Ref.

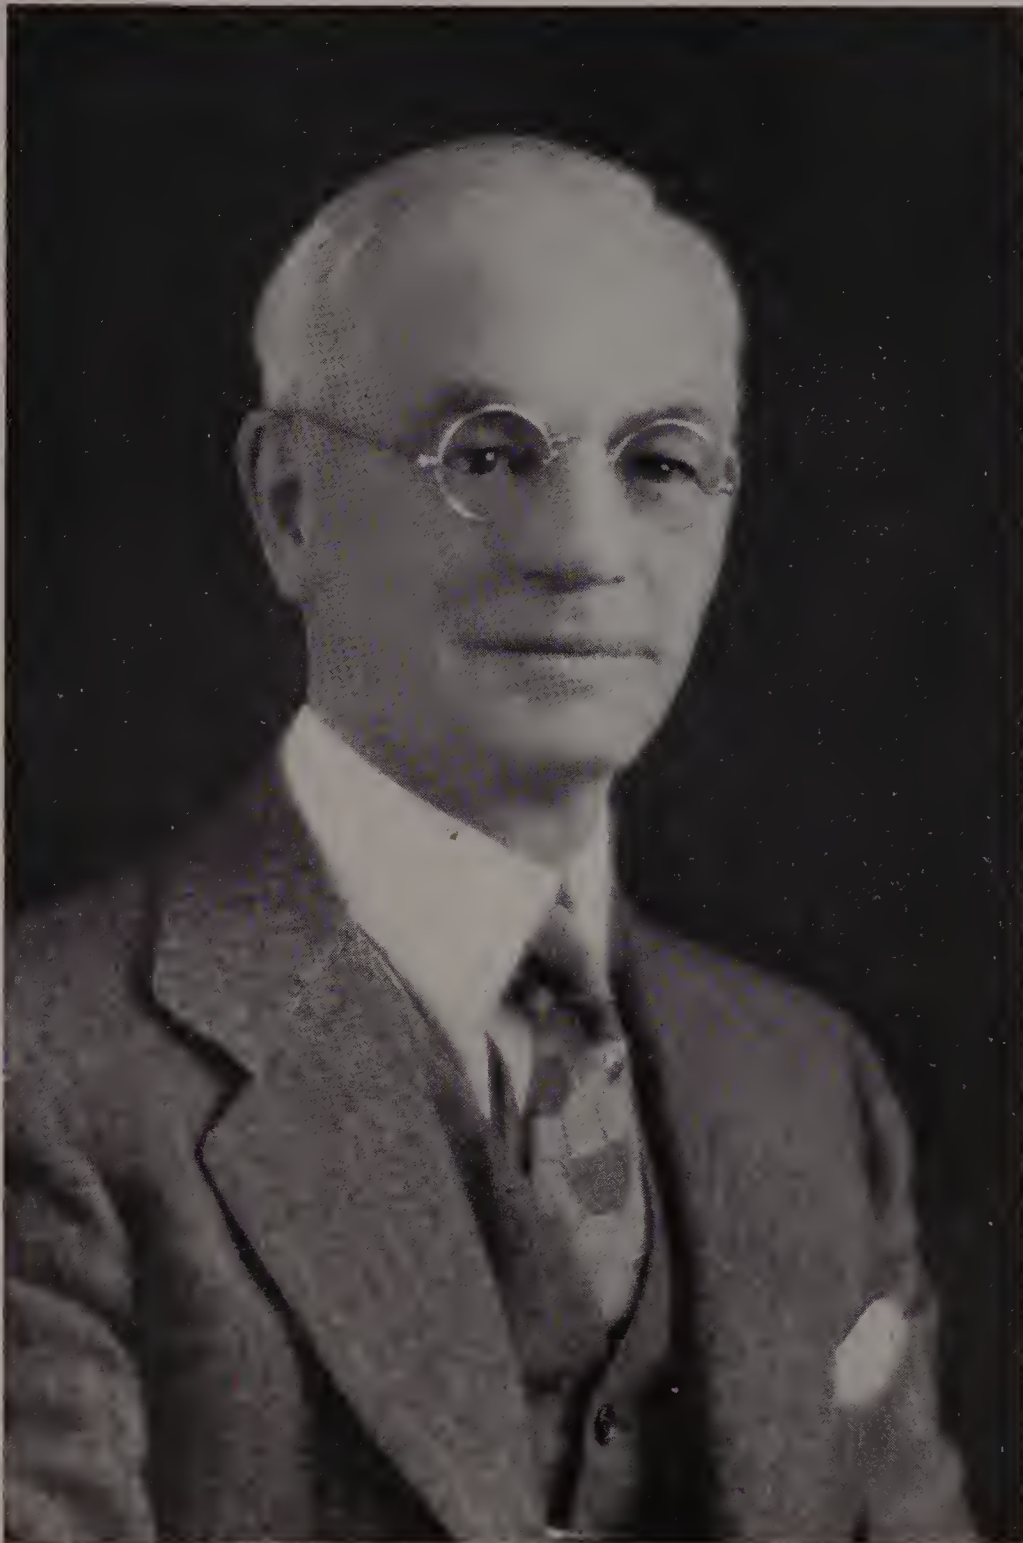

THE LAWRENCE HIGH SCHOOL

Dedication

To our beloved headmaster,
Laurence J. O'Leary,
an inspiring educator,
outstanding citizen,
and understanding friend,
we, the class of 1948,
are proud to dedicate this history of our high school days.

JAMES F. HENNESSEY
Superintendent of Schools

LAURENCE J. O'LEARY
Principal of Lawrence High School

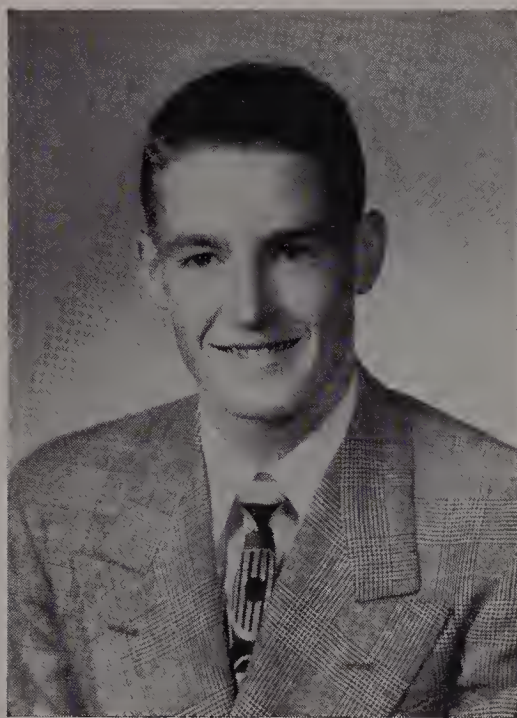

Class Ode

Classmates, we can hardly realize
Four long years have by us passed.
We have all been friends most faithful,
And our parting's hard at last.
Step by step we've climbed the ladder,
Mingling work with all our fun,
Till at last we're on the top round
Feeling that our goal we've won.

Now our High School days are over,
And our friendships sadly end.
Each must choose a task much harder
And upon himself depend.
But we each will climb life's ladder,
And our duties never shun
Till at last we're on the top round
Feeling that Our Goal we've won.

The cheering squad for the season 1947-48 was composed of six seniors and five juniors, each of whom did a splendid job. The seniors chosen were: Joan Balezentes, Elaine Somers, Marilyn Golan, Barbara Hildebrandt, Marie Garvey, and Gloria Chakurmanian. The juniors were Alice Dudash, Helen Petroccione, Ann Smith, Arlene Devine, and Joan Lynch. Joan Balezentes was chosen as head-cheerleader, with Elaine Somers and Alice Dudash as her assistants.

This is only the second year that the cheering squad has been made up entirely of girls and we were still "on trial" as cheerleaders of L. H. S.

We shall never forget the time we were invited to witness the Boston University-Colgate game in Boston. Making the trip with our band, and together with some thirty-two bands from other schools, we put on a most colorful and beautiful display.

The football banquet was also an event which will live long in our memory. We felt very proud as we walked up to receive our sweaters, and we felt that it certainly was a job well done.

Our success was due wholly to the tireless efforts and enduring patience of our advisor, Miss Bruce, and to her we give our heartiest thanks.

To Mr. Kennedy, Mr. Devlin, and the members of the Athletic Association, we wish to express our gratitude for helping us get our new uniforms and awarding us our sweaters.

We would also like to thank Mr. Sault for the time he spent in helping us with our songs.

It was a great honor and privilege being your Captain for 1948, and it is one year that will always live in my memory.

JOAN M. BALEZENTES

Baseball

On Wednesday, April 21, the Lawrence High School Baseball Team will endeavor to atone for the setback suffered in 1947. With the names Ruffen, Fenton, Kershaw, Hickey, McGregor and Veilleux missing from the lineup the task ahead of the team is a difficult one. They will have to compete against potentially strong teams, such as Salem, English and the defending State Champions, Lynn Classical.

We will, of course, miss the advice and direction of a great coach, Mark Devlin, who along with the above mentioned has built character, and along with his ideal sincerity has always taught fair play both on and off the field. Our main purpose in the coming campaign is to regain the Essex County Championship, which we have won more than any other of our competitors.

We are starting out with a new man at the helm, James Jordan, a man full of the same basic feelings toward fair play as the man whom he succeeds. He has served from 1943 as a competent and capable assistant, and now that he has assumed the role as head coach of Lawrence High School, Athletics will be well coached in every respect.

Coach Jordan will field many new faces against a strong Lynn Classical aggregation on opening day. The battery shapes up as the strongest in the league with Callagy, Kowalski, Waisgerber on the mound, and Captain Edmund Samra behind the plate. Callagy, a curve ball artist, is noted for his expert control. He does not stop with his pitching. Many a time he has assumed the role of a pinch-hitter, and may be used in the outfield when he is not pitching. Next on the list is Richard Kowalski, a strong armed pitcher, with a blazing fast ball. Dick has been looked over by many major league scouts, and twice has been selected to represent this section in the Hearst Finals at Braves Field. Dick's best weapon is his fast ball, which is said to be on top of the batter before he knows it. He is also working on a fork ball, and a change of pace. This, coupled with his will to win, should make him a tower of strength of this year's team. Last but not least on this pitching staff is Joe Waisgerber. Joe was the center on last year's football team, and can be called on at any time to give a dependable performance. The catching duties will be held down by Captain Edmund Samra. Ed was last year's regular third baseman, until the regular catcher, Richard Hickey, was forced out of the lineup by an injured hand. Here Ed stepped in, and did a very commendable job. Ed also hits that long ball, and can break up many close ball games with one swing of his bat.

Now a swing around the infield. At first base a bitter battle will be waged between Sam Lopiano and Donald Shycoff. This position was evacuated by last year's Captain Tom Ruffen. Lopiano is a tall, lean senior, and plays the bag like a real veteran. His adversary will be Don Shycoff, a good man with the stick. Don has the knack of hitting the ball to left, which is usually left unguarded. At second base is Jack Dean, a veteran for the past three seasons and one of the five regulars returning. Over at shortstop two more aspirants will strive to gain a regular berth on opening day. First on the agenda is diminutive Jim Campagnone, a speed merchant on the bases and an extremely powerful hitter in comparison to his small stature. At his defense position his greatest asset is his ability to cover enormous ground, and make a difficult throw look relatively easy. In order to gain a regular berth he will have to compete against Frank Calabrese an up-and-coming Sophomore, who fields his position like a natural. At third base is Louis Sarcione, a backbone in the inner defense. Lou

took over the "hot corner" last year when Captain Samra moved behind the plate. His specialty is punching line drives through the infield before the opposition has time to react.

With the graduation of last year's veteran outfield, the task of developing a new trio of hard hitting fly-chasers will be a difficult one. With the opening game less than three weeks away, Coach Jordan will probably select his starting outfield from the following: Arthur Sirmaian, James McMahon, Emil Vitale, Dan Donovan, Don Walworth, and Anthony (Mort) Vitale.

With all the above mentioned in mind, I am sure that with grim determination we will meet our adversaries on the field, defeat them, and bring to Lawrence High School, the honor which she so justly deserves.

SAUGUS 12

Lawrence, with only ten practice sessions behind them, could not compete with the stronger Saugus eleven who had spring training and late summer sessions. The closest Lawrence came to a T. D. was when Gagnon took the ball on a hand off from Kowalski, down to the 34-yard stripe. The Saugus line held, and gained the ball on downs. A few plays later they made a T. D. Cauty and Kuchar starred as defense line-men.

*LAWRENCE 6

Memorial Stadium, Lowell ST. JOSEPH'S OF MANCHESTER 0

Two days after the fracas with Saugus, Lawrence met St. Joseph's. Captain Langevin won the toss, and elected to receive. Sarcione caught the pigskin on the twenty and was promptly smacked by the St. Joseph's ends. A fumble put Cathedral on the Lawrence three-yard line. In the second period a pass from Callagy to Spizer, and a plunge through center by LoPiano set up a T. D. for Lawrence. Callagy took the ball on a hand off through guard for the only score.

LAWRENCE 6

Memorial Stadium, Lawrence

ST. JAMES 0

Lawrence's Callagy, Ryley, and Sarcione sparked the team to their only T. D. Nissi of St. James did some good ball carrying but was stopped continuously by the Lawrence line. Lawrence worked the ball down to the goal line on a series of passes to Gregorwicz and Vitale. Callagy then took the ball over on a line plunge.

MANCHESTER 39

Although the Lawrence line held together pretty well, the Manchester boys swept the ends, and passed at will. Callagy, McGurren, Sarcione and Jasinski teamed together to gain quite a number of yards but the blocking and running of the Manchester team plus the successful completion of many passes deflated Lawrence.

LYNN ENGLISH 13

Lawrence displayed fine offensive and defensive football against Lynn. The fast, shifty Whelan of English was stopped continuously by Gregorowicz, Vitale, and Spizer while Kuchar and Wooles, plus Waisgerber playing secondary, teamed to knock off the interference. LoPiano and Jasinski starred offensively.

LAWRENCE 7

Leominster

LEOMINISTER 33

Lawrence's poor pass defense, and sluggish offense cost them a bitter defeat. Mort Vitale and Gerald Callagy sparked the offensive play for the Blue and White. Waisgerber and Fleming starred on the defense. Gagnon scored the only T. D. for Lawrence.

LAWRENCE 2

Nashua

NASHUA 19

McGurren and Callagy managed to carry out a screen pass which caught Nashua on their heels, and Lawrence brought the ball down to Nashua's three-yard line. The Nashua line managed to hold and took the ball on downs. In an attempt to kick out of danger the Nashua back was rushed and he stepped out of the safety zone, resulting with two points. This was Lawrence's only score.

CENTRAL CATHOLIC 20

Lawrence opened the scoring in the first quarter when Callagy punted to Central's 40, and LoPiano recovered. Callagy then threw a pass to LoPiano for the first T. D. On the kick-off Raymond took the ball on the 30 and went for a T. D., but they missed the point. Central Catholic kicked short and after five plays Lawrence was on the goal line. A pass from Callagy to Gregorowicz made it 14-6. Wooles blocked a punt on Central's 20, and Lawrence made another T. D. Durkin took the ball on the kick-off, and ran for a score, making it 21-13. Lawrence was on Central Catholic's one-foot line when the half ended. Sexton heaved a pass to Morris in the last minutes of play for a score. Lawrence had 15 first downs to Central Catholic's four, and 164 yards to Central Catholic's 45. There were no penalties in this game.

PEABODY 13

Lawrence trailed at the half, 6-0. Callagy threw a pass to LoPiano from Peabody's 30. LoPiano carried it to the eleven and then another to LoPiano reached the 2-yard stripe. Callagy plunged over. Sarcione took a pass from Callagy for the point. St. Paul then scored for the Tanners. Emilio Vitale snagged a pass, Callagy on Lawrence's 39 to Vitale on Peabody's 35. Callagy took the ball over from the one-foot line. The pressure was on Bob Gagnon but he came through with a good conversion to win the game.

HAVERHILL 0

Callagy scored the first T. D. in the second period when he ran 78 yards for a T. D. In the third he heaved a 20-yard pass to Gregorowicz for a score. LoPiano plucked a 12-yard pass early in the fourth period and went over standing up. Stella, Wooles, and Dowe played brilliant ball in the middle of the line, and Spizer, A. Vitale, E. Vitale, Carey, Fleming, Donovan and Gregorowicz covered the flanks.

LAWRENCE 14

Salem

SALEM 26

Salem got the jump on Lawrence in the first quarter when they took advantage of a fumble on the 30-yard mark. Lawrence came back with a vicious offense and drove for a T. D. Salem took another Lawrence fumble for a score. Callagy scored on an end sweep. McMahon intercepted a pass and knocked down quite a number.

Kouchalakos caught Jasinski's opening kick-off and ran for a touch-down. In the second Gregorowicz recovered a fumble on Lowell's 23-yard line. Callagy broke through for five and LoPiano for one. A pass to Gregorowicz scored the only touch-down for Lawrence. The game was marked by many pass interceptions, and fumbles.

Lawrence won 4, lost 6.

JOHN E. LANGEVIN, Class of 1948.

Track

When Coach Ernest J. Perry greeted his first group of track aspirants, he crossed his fingers and hoped for the best. He knew that a great deal of head-scratching would be necessary if he were to successfully place his men and obtain a well-balanced team; for a new ruling of the Headmaster's Association prohibited the use of a competitor in more than one running and one field event. Quantity as well as quality was essential.

Returning lettermen included Don Keamy, Bob Gagnon, Allan Locke, Bob McGurran, Don Furnari, and Captain Bob Ryley. These boys were to form the nucleus for the 1948 team.

Coach Perry made two discoveries in the first weeks of practice. One: He had a good shot putter in the blond giant, Ernie Gregorowicz. And two: He had a number of good sprinters headed by the diminutive Lou Sarcione. All other valuable possessions were to be ascertained at the first meet.

Lynn English inaugurated the season. Sarcione, Stella, and Paris swept the dash. Locke and McGurran took second and third respectively in the hurdles, and Lou Jiarusso, a freshman, placed third in the "1000." Ryley and Lamontagne took third places in the "300" and "600," while Furnari and Ken Meinelt placed second and third in the mile. Gagnon and Frank Zemis placed first and third in the high jump and Gregorowicz won the shot put. English captured the relay. Final score: English 45, Lawrence 32.

The following week the team took part in the Northeastern Interscholastics at the Boston Garden and failed to score.

The Andover Jayvees provided opposition in the next meet. Sarcione and Stella placed first and third in the dash while Locke and McGurran took second and third in the hurdles. Gidansky and Paris placed first and third in the "300" and Ryley won a slow "600." Furnari placed second in the "1000" while Meinelt took third in the mile. "Greg" won the shot put and Frank Zemis tied for second in the high jump. Lawrence won the relay. Final score, Lawrence 38½, Andover 38½.

Lynn Classical was our next opponent. Locke, McGurran and Dick McCarthy swept the hurdles. Classical's Paul Pittman, state champion and world's record holder of the sixty yard dash, won the "40," but Sarcione and Rhineri placed second and third. Gidansky won the "300" and "Rifle" and Lamontagne placed first and third in the "600." Furnari took second in the "1000" and Meinelt third in the mile. Gregorowicz won the shot put and Zemis the high jump. Classical won the relay. Final score: Classical 39, Lawrence 38.

We failed to score in the State meet, but we emerged with some consolation as the relay team of Sarcione, McGurran, Gidansky and Ryley won their heat, defeating Lowell and Dorchester.

We suffered our worst defeat of the season at the hands (and elbows) of our deadly rival Lowell. The dilapidated wooden floor on which we ran is audaciously called a track by Lowell men. But it is hardly deserving of any such illustrious appellation.

Running the dangerous wooden corners with practiced ease, the Lowell boys won every running event except the hurdles which was won by Al Locke. Ernie Gregorowicz heaved Lowell's melon-shaped shot but 44 feet for his longest put of the season. Other boys placing were Sarcione, McGurran, Powers, Furnari, Meinelt, Gagnon, Zemis, and Jasinski. Final score: Lowell 55½, Lawrence 22½.

We journeyed to Andover the following week for our second meet with the Jayvees. Bob McGurran and Locke placed first and second in the hurdles and Sarcione won the dash. Gidansky and Donaldson placed third in the mile and Gagnon and Zemis tied for first in the high jump. "Greg" placed third in the shot put. Final score: Andover 39, Lawrence 38.

Making the trip to Brunswick, Maine, to run in the Bowdoin Interscholastics were Bob McGurren, Louis Sarcione, Bob Gagnon, Ernie Gregorowicz, and Bob Ryley. Bob Gagnon scored Lawrence's only point in the high jump. However, Sarcione ran in the finals of the dash and McGurren ran in the semi-finals of the hurdles. Gidansky ran his best time of the year in the "300" and Ryley the best time of his career in the "600."

If the success of a season is determined by the record of a team, then the year of 1948 was a complete failure for the Lawrence high track squad. But there is more to athletics than just winning and losing. There is the underlying spirit of good sportsmanship in competition that gives purpose to athletics in the high school. Looking at it from the philosophic rather than from the material side, we can say that the season was as successful as any ever experienced at Lawrence High.

Basketball

The Lawrence High Basketball Team opened its season with a journey to the "Fishermen" of Gloucester where a heartbreaking loss was suffered by the score of 31-30. Captain Sam LoPiano led his mates vainly with eleven points. The team's tough luck continued as they lost a thrilling overtime contest with the Lynn English five, 41-39. Diminutive Carmen Martellini and Stu Spizer were high scorers for the "Blue and White" with thirteen points each. The team finally broke the ice as they knocked off a Beverly quintet, 37-35. The team continued to roll as they humbled Peabody, 56-38. The highlight of the game was the twenty-five points dropped through the hoop by Martellini. Nevertheless bad luck struck again in the next game as the team lost another overtime thriller to Lynn Classical, 37-36. It was the all-around playing of the team's guards, Don Shycoff and Gerry Callagy, that stood out in the game. The team then took on a smooth Salem quintet and dropped the decision, 36-27. Martellini again led his mates with fifteen points. Sweet revenge was then secured as we toppled Gloucester, 45-31. It was Captain LoPiano who took scoring honors with seventeen points. We then suffered a loss to Lynn English, 44-30. The team took its fourth win at the expense of Beverly, 45-31. The next game was an upset loss to Peabody, 52-48. The victory trail was hit again as we toppled Harry Agganis and his mates to the melodious score of 52-38, as Captain LoPiano sunk twenty-four points. The team then toppled traditional rival Haverhill, 35-24. This was followed by a victor over city rival Central Catholic, 31-27. Both games being of the thrilling, heart-stopping form and it was the all-around play of the team as a whole that stood out noticeably. The team repeated its victory over Haverhill on their own court, 44-37, with Martellini dropping twenty points through the hoop. In the following two games Lowell beat us twice with the identical score of 49-37. Central Catholic then topped us, 42-38, with Don Shycoff playing an outstanding game offensively and defensively with thirteen points. The season finished as we lost to Salem, 40-31.

In Captain Sam LoPiano at one forward position, we had a good all around player, always aggressive and fighting. At the other forward position, Carmen Martellini, whose 198 points for the season were good enough to rank him second in league scoring. He was the possessor of the best eye on the team, and he frequently made use of it in astounding shots. At center, Stuie Spizer, who stood six feet one inch, and took advantage of his height to work aggressively around the backboards. Guard Don Shycoff was as good as any all-around guard in the league. He was a terror on the defense and always a threat on the offence. Captain elect, Gerry Callagy was brilliant on defense and always ready to come through in the clutch when needed, and is sure to make a good team leader for the coming season.

Five other boys who received their letters for the season and saw considerable action were, Anthony Vitale, John DeAngelo, Edward Lawlor, Edward Samra, and William Scalora. The only member from this group, returning for another season, is Sophomore Johnny DeAngelo. Thus, around him and Gerry Callagy, the only returnee from the first team, will the nucleus of next year's team be formed.

James F. Jordan was the coach of the team. It was his first year as head coach, and he led the team skilfully to third place in the Essex County League. Mark Devlin was Athletic Director, and Jim Murphy the trainer.

Tribute to John J. Casey

We, the Seniors of the Class of 1948, wish to dedicate this page of our year book to the man who has given up his time unstintingly in its cause. It is difficult to put into words the true appreciation of his guidance.

He has undertaken the task of publishing the class book for the fourth consecutive year. This year, in spite of our late start, he gave us his utmost attention and cooperation. As a teacher he is superb, and as a counselor he gave his much-needed aid in countless ways.

This small dedication is but a paltry bit of what we owe him. Nevertheless, at this time I wish to express the heartfelt thanks of each and every Senior.

CLASS

DAY

Class Will and Testament

We, the members of the class of 1948, being of unquestionable sanity and good health, do hereby bequeath our entire possessions to the future graduating classes. We sincerely hope that they shall be appreciated by the beneficiaries of this will.

To Mr. Hennessey, Mr. O'Leary and the faculty, we leave our sincere thanks for their guidance during the last four years.

To Mr. Casey also goes a big cheer for his willingness to help us publish this year book.

Who could be more fitting to start the ball rolling than our own hard-working President, Bob McGurren, who leaves an unparalleled display of school spirit.

Joan Addison, our Vice-President, leaves her popularity with both sexes, together with her friendly disposition.

Our Secretary-Treasurer, Marie Garvey, leaves her contagious smile, her swell personality, and her devotion to her many duties.

"Candy" Payne leaves her nickname to some sweet junior.

Sam LoPiano leaves his outstanding athletic ability to Gerry Callagy.

Jack Dean leaves his many feminine admirers.

Jim McMahon leaves his friendliness and popularity.

Kay Haley leaves her Irish Temper.

Ann Sullivan could leave a lot of charm and still have plenty left.

Johnny Langevin leaves his football captaincy to Al Wooles with wishes for a successful season.

"Bo" Solak leaves for Hollywood with his trumpet. S'Long Harry James.

Alfred Arcidiacono leaves the "chicks" at L.H.S. for the ones in his father's store.

Dave Bean leaves his weight to anyone who needs it.

Elaine Scott and Eleanor Brennan—their inseparable friendship.

Bob Reinhold leaves a big gap in the fun at 4th period recess.

Carmen Martellini leaves a brilliant record on the Basketball court to anyone who can match it.

Don Keamy leaves his smile in a glass of water at night. Just kidding Don.

Jo Torrisi leaves as our "oomph" girl.

Jack Donovan leaves for Salisbury Beach.

Doris Cox is leaving to be a house wife.

Mary Musumeci leaves us to have more time with her Billy.

Claire Fleischmann—her long and assorted list of talents.

Edmond Samra-leaves his troubles for someone else to worry about.

June Maynard leaves her personality.

Ray Mansour leaves the glee club minus a basso profundo.

Joan Balezentes and Marilyn Golan leave their school spirit to the future cheerleaders.

Tony Davainis leaves to write a new dictionary.

Barbara Murphy leaves all her pep. Where does she get it all?
 Bob Ryley and Dick McCarthy leave to make Hampton happy.
 Janet Booth leaves her ability to arrive a few minutes after the last bell every morning.
 Mike Kolofoles leaves in a hurry.
 Betty Charpentier leaves her blonde hair and radiant smile.
 Stuey Spizer leaves his height to some diminutive junior.
 June Gossellin leaves as swell as ever.
 Mainey Theadore leaves his popularity with both sexes to his brother Charlie.
 Milly Dryshinski leaves minus a valuable picture.
 Ted Tillotson leaves his Zooty Clothes.
 Marie DiBenedetto leaves the host of friends she has made during her high school days.
 Hermie Keene leaves to get a shave.
 Libby Haseltine leaves with one Guy C. S.
 Don MacKenzie leaves to go hunting. Game that is.
 Betty Nelson leaves her popularity with the male sex to her three sisters.
 Jackie Beauchesne leaves a resounding "Hi."
 Bill Canty leaves his ability as a fighter (the future Champ).
 Ginger Dewhurst leaves all the boys with their tongues out.
 Bob Sambataro leaves us wondering.
 Rita Shaw leaves us each an ice cream bar. All right, Rita, we'll pay for them.
 Charlie Lane leaves his keen sense of humor.
 Elaine Somers leaves with a beautiful ring. Good luck, kid.
 Billy Flynn leaves us a dozen of Brockelman's best do-nuts.
 Ida Radcliffe leaves her good-natured joking.
 Bernice Murphy leaves her charm and her swell disposition.
 Walter Fleming leaves to find his dog. Why don't you look on Dorchester Street, Wally?
 Pat Collins leaves her quietness to a lot of people who could use it.
 Art Sirmain leaves his famous saying, "How nice," as a tribute to the females in L.H.S.
 Allan Locke leaves his long legs to insure the future success of the track team.
 Dot Subert leaves a lot of boys wishing they had become better acquainted.
 John Guiffrida leaves all his teachers with gray hair.
 Pat O'Brien leaves her personality plus.
 Bernie Fionte leaves historical abilities and he certainly put them to good use.
 Norma Pollano leaves her loyalty to her boyfriend.
 Kay Tomasselli leaves her swell record as editor of the Lawrencian.
 Buddy Hill leaves with the boys from Ward One.
 Bootsie Matthews leaves her love life with handsome Herby.
 Dick MacKay leaves his "Westerns" to anyone who appreciates the "finer things."

Tubby Keirnan leaves his letters to some disappointed athlete.
 Milly Belanger and Laura Fredette leave to publish their own newspaper.
 Eddie Lawlor leaves his vim and vigor.
 Anne Sinibaldi leaves her intelligence.
 Sam Cultrera leaves to get married.
 Connie Glennon leaves many girls envious of her long black tresses.
 Frank Marino leaves his sharp "spies."
 Rita Avalone leaves her new look.
 Al Murabito leaves his clowning in Miss Shine's room.
 Irene Del Monico leaves her nice ways and ability to type to some fortunate junior.
 Connie Fuoco leaves a book on how to make friends. Her qualifications are obvious.
 Henry DeBenedetto leaves his Physics home.
 Terry Fortin leaves all her "E's" in Miss Brown's room.
 Bill Scalora leaves his nickname "Dead Eye."
 Kay Sasso leaves her petite beauty.
 Jim Sciarino and Eddie Salovitch leave their great joke team. One cracks them and the other laughs.
 Rosalind Oaken leaves the boys knowing where they stand.
 Mort Vitale leaves his snowballing at recess with regrets.
 "Jeanie" Beliveau leaves her cheery greeting and pleasant smile.
 Jim MacDonald leaves his trombone.
 Pauline Duquette—her job in Woolworth's.
 Bill Dowe leaves his red hat.
 Claire McKew leaves her popularity with the South Lawrence boys.
 Harry Kadishian leaves his protruding proposeis.
 Joan Hall leaves her car. How about a ride sometime, Joan?
 Donald Shycoff leaves his long shots in basketball. They saved many a game.
 Lorraine Donovan leaves with her ever-lastingly good humor, and looks besides.
 Jack Sattinella leaves "Perry's Commandoes" without a capable center.
 Sylvia Cutler—her pleasing nature.
 Howard Palmer leaves his artistic talent.
 Pauline Salvo leaves her beautiful clothes, and her sparkling personality.
 Barbara LaGrange leaves her popularity and good looks to some proud Junior.
 The undying spirit and dogged courage of our "48" athletes is hereby bequeathed to the future "Iron Men," to help them maintain the honored position that our institution has always held in sporting competition.
 The Senior members of The Lawrencian, The Speakers' Club and all the other organizations leave their sagacious advice and assorted talents to their successors.
 To my classmates whom I have omitted above, I offer my sincere apologies, but neither time nor space will permit me to include all of you. However, as we leave the protecting walls of our Alma Mater and venture into the world, we all voice our thanks in unison to our teachers for the preparation they have given us to meet our everyday trials and tribulations. Many a tear will be shed for the memories of eager friendships and happy hours. Last but not least, we wish Lawrence High School and its future scholars all of the luck in the world.

JOHN R. PARKER
 Class of 1948

Class History

In September, 1944, we entered the Oliver School, freshmen. We felt quite diffident among the unfamiliar faces and surroundings.

Confusion and chaos reigned for the first few weeks but after we got our bearings and used to the novelty of changing rooms each period, the confusion disappeared.

Although we tried to be very sophisticated we soon realized we had a lot to learn. The maze of rules complicated high school life.

In a short time we became better acquainted with the faculty and classmates. We realized high school life was fun too.

Laura Fredette and Millicent Belanger were on the Lawrencian staff and wrote our freshmen column.

On Thanksgiving Day, Lawrence High defeated Lowell High in a thrilling football game. The final score was 13-12.

Rita Ann Donovan and John Blackington were voted most popular students in the annual contest sponsored by the Lawrencian.

May 8, 1945 is one date in our high school days that will never be forgotten, for that was V-E Day. We were dismissed as soon as the announcement came with great celebration.

At graduation, Robert Ryley and Mary Di Zazzo were awarded the Perkins Prizes.

Sophomore Year

Our summer vacation had ended. The war was over on August 14th, 1945. What fun it was to be back, no longer the little freshmen. We entered the real high school building. We stopped making conscious efforts at being sophisticated. We began to voice our ideas and opinions without fear. We were sophomores!

The football season commenced with John Langevin as representative of our class. Although Lawrence High lost the Thanksgiving Day game, 14-7, to Lowell High, our spirit remained undaunted in defeat.

The Friday Frolics were a huge success this year. We shall always remember the good times we had there.

Lawrence High baseball team won the Essex County League Championship and went to state tournament. The class was justly proud of two baseball players, John Dean and Edward Samra.

Rita Ann Donovan was again voted most popular girl, and Walter Solak was voted most popular boy.

At graduation, Mary DiZazzo and Bernard Fionte were awarded the Perkins Prizes.

Junior Year

We came back realizing we were now an important part of the high school function. We were more carefree and jolly this year. We discovered new places to go and new things to do.

This year Lawrence High won, 14-0, on Thanksgiving Day. Upon completion of the football season John Langevin was elected captain for 1947.

The outstanding event of the basketball season was the tournament. Lawrence High team was Essex County champions. Our class was proud of Samuel Lopiano and Donald Shycoff. Sam Lopiano was elected captain for the next year.

The results of the popularity contest were Rita Ann Donovan for the third consecutive year voted most popular girl and Robert McGurren most popular boy.

Robert Ryley and Robert McGurren both were fine trackmen. Robert Ryley was elected captain for next year.

Lawrence High baseball team was second in Essex County League championship. John Dean and Edward Samra continued their exceptionally good playing. Edward Samra was elected captain for the following year.

The gym exhibition in April displayed to the public just what we accomplished during gym classes.

The Lawrence High band, attired in striking new uniforms, attended the Eastern Massachusetts Conclave. The members of the band will never forget the anxiety they felt for fear the uniforms would not arrive on time.

In May the annual Senior-Junior prom was held. Patricia Gemmell, who led the grand march with the President of the Senior Class, Emil Witkiewicz, was the most envied girl of the class.

At graduation, Anthony Terrenova was awarded the Gerrish geometry prize. Robert Ryley for the second time won the Perkins Prize.

Senior Year

We were now dignified seniors. We were happy to be the upper-classmen. We were sober as we realized the responsibility that would soon be ours.

Katherine Tomaselli was made editor of the Lawrencian. We were pleased to have a girl editor.

Lawrence High defeated Central Catholic, 21-20, in one of the most exciting games of the football season.

The Cheerleaders were complimented for their fine work. Special mention should be given to Joan Balezentes, the leader, for her untiring efforts.

In basketball Carmen Martellini was high scorer in most of the games.

Homeroom representatives, were chosen and work industriously commenced for our yearbook.

In February class elections were held and we elected: Robert McGurren, President; Joan Addison, Vice-President; and Marie Garvey, Secretary-Treasurer.

An honor was bestowed on Joan Addison for it isn't often a girl has the privilege of holding the high office of vice-president.

Jeanne D' Avignon represented our school in the annual American Legion Oratorical Contest. She delivered an excellent oration.

This is only an outline of the highlights of our high school career. Each of us has his own fond memories to keep forever. Now, as we are about to don our caps and gowns, our high school days are gone, but never to be forgotten.

Class Prophecy

July 12, 1953

Miss Joan Addison, R. N.
John Hopkins Hospital
Boston, Massachusetts

Dear Joan:

It's too bad you couldn't get time off from your duties to come with us on the trip, planned in the year 1948, when Lifebuoy Soap was every girl's must during Leap Year. However, Barbara Hyland and I, managed to get a week's vacation from our jobs as Air Hostesses. Incidentally, the Air Line is owned by none other than our own daredevils, Mainey Theadore and John Jeknovorian.

The first person we contacted was Betty Nelson, now manager of Planters Peanuts, Inc. She has gone far in the peanut business with Kay Haley and June Maynard as her capable assistants.

As we made our way across Essex Street, we were petrified by the blaring of an automobile horn. We turned in time to notice Bob Sammataro and his lovely wife, the former Lorraine Donovan, pulling over to the curb in their 1953 Buick convertible. We stopped to talk to them, and noticed Candy and Carmen Martellini, who had finally called a truce, and taken that well-known "Trip to the Altar."

It was train time so Bob drove us to the station, where we boarded our train for New York City. We were struggling with our luggage, when a tall, dark and handsome Naval Captain offered a helping hand. Imagine our surprise! Bill Scalora, of all people! He informed us that Jack Donovan and Jack Dean were the sole owners of the Boston and Maine Railroad Company.

After travelling five hours on an express, we arrived at Grand Central Station where we were greeted by quite a few of our old school chums. The first three people we met were Betty Monayer, Gen Abraham, and Pauline Leone, owners of Macey's Department Store. A few minutes later, we were joined by Jackie Huson, Ida Radcliffe and Winnie Jesser, assistant buyers at Filene's in Boston. We all went into New York's newest restaurant, to have a bite to eat. A smart looking hostess greeted us. It was Connie Glennon who, with Rita Avallone and Sylvia Hershfield, had succeeded Stue Spizer and Sam Lopiano, who had retired from the restaurant business after making their first five million.

Before sitting down, a few of the girls went over to the television set. They came back with smug looks on their faces. We were all naturally curious, but were enlightened when we heard the voices of Connie Fuoco and Don Keamy, singing a lovely ballad. The next song was sung by our own Rose Pugh. All three were the nation's top singers.

It was a beautiful day for a stroll along Broadway to see the sights. We had not gone far before noticing three lovely girls, dressed in mink and sables, walking toward us. We were astounded to see how Pauline Salvo, Jo Torissi and Terry Sammataro had progressed with their modeling careers. They informed us that Bootsie Matthews and Pat Gemmell were also owners of one of Chicago's most famous modeling schools.

We continued walking, but not for long. It seems there was a parade going on. We had a few minutes to spare, so we stopped for awhile. We hardly expected to see any of our old school chums there, but then it was the class of 48, and heaven knows, what didn't happen that year. To get back to the parade, we noticed our own Bob Chamberlain in a leopard skin on a beautiful white horse. He was supposedly a native from the jungle. Poor Bob! Next we noticed Lucy Lonardo and Janet Booth, walking beside two huge elephants. They seemed to be having the time of their lives, trying to walk the elephants in a straight line. This was supposedly an advertisement for the Barnum & Bailey Circus. Next came an ad for 7-20-4 cigars. Here we noticed Donald McKenzie and Al Stella, dressed in tails, smoking two large cigars, and carrying quite a few leaves of tobacco in their arms. Last came the band, led by Dick McKay. We noticed Bo Solak, Joe Esile and Jim McDonald, playing their favorite instruments just as they had played in "Ye olde days." The parade was over and it was getting late so we thought we would spend the night at the Waldorf Hotel. We were surprised indeed to find Bob McGurran and Jack Parker owners of this beautiful hotel. We arrived in time to see Bill Lavery and John Langevin, leaving to attend an important conference at Washington, D. C. They apologized for the unexpected call and promised to return as soon as they could, to talk over old times.

The next morning John and Bill returned and we all decided to take a short trip to Washington in Bill's convertible. We had been driving for what seemed a short time when we began to feel hungry. We stopped at a quaint little roadside inn. Pauline Poulin and Eleanor Buote, were the owners of this and quite a few other inns, as we noticed while riding along a few hours later.

Travelling along beside a small river, we noticed a ferry and decided to board it for a sight-seeing tour. Everything was beautiful and scenery such as you have never seen. We approached a huge mansion, and the Captain informed us that the owners were Marilyn Golan and Marie Garvey, two prominent business women, who had been living there for a few years. We just couldn't pass without saying "Hello" to Marilyn and Marie so we had the captain stop. It seems there was a big party there the evening before, and quite a few of the guests stayed for the night, among them were Rita Shaw, Millie Belanger, Gloria Chakamian, Jeanne Siegel, Pauline Duquette and Rosalind Oaken. A good time was had by all. We left the Golan and Garvey residence and continued on our journey. This time we managed to arrive a few hours later with no stops along the way.

It was Saturday night, and from what we noticed in Washington, it seemed to be a very special night. There were dance halls, theatres, and dining rooms, but what intrigued us most was an extra large dance hall called the "Crystal." We thought it would seem like old times to drop in for awhile, and were contemplating the matter when a beautiful convertible drew over to the curb and two chic young women stepped out. They were Betty Charpentier and Eleanor Roberge, owners of the "Crystal." They invited us into the dance hall as their guests, where many surprises awaited us. Somehow they had managed to form an all-girl orchestra, with Barbara Murphy as the leader, and Rita Gavin as the featured singer. Over in the corner, Betty pointed out a group of celebrities. We ventured over and were amazed to see Joan Balezentes, Barbara Hildebrant and Barbara Lagrange who had accompanied their husbands to Washington on a business trip. Standing a few feet away was a group of laughing men and women. Among these were: Walter Fleming, Jim Carney, Claire Fleishman, Dick McCarthy, Pat Collins, Tom Clifford, Dot Seubert and Mort Vitale.

It was getting late and we had yet to catch a plane, so we left the "Crystal," and hailed a taxi to the airport. Our wonderful trip was ended, and the only regret Babs and I had was that of not being able to see so many more of our old classmates. Had our time been lengthened for a longer period we certainly would have met many more of them. But nevertheless, Joan, I know that wherever they are or whatever they may be doing they shall be successful, and we wish them the best of luck in everything.

Sincerely,

JEANNE BELIVEAU
